PFL Matai Voy 009N delayed berthing in Suva

Dear Valued Customer,

We wish to advise that there will be delays to the PFL Matai Voy 009N/S berthing in Suva due to another vessel experiencing a crane failure over the weekend and repairs needing to be performed before this vessel can safely depart. The recovery plan is taking up the full berth which has led to delays on all ships to be worked at the Port of Suva.

The PFL Matai was due to arrive and commence work on Sunday 20th October but based on current information will now most likely berth during the evening of Wednesday 23rd October.

Should there be any changes to the above timeframe, we will update you accordingly.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, please contact your local PFL representative.

Sincerely,

PFL
